Whether in a high posit on, Or a lowly walk in life. He it is who, now fulfilling Every duty day by day Shows the mind and spirit willing To perform its on ward way.

Life's a bark upon the ocean, Tossed and rocked by every gale; Now seu 's on with speedy motion, Now with rent and tattered sail. Life's ? bright and sunny morning, with some light refreshing showers, Followed by dark cloudy wanning Of the storm that o'er us lowers. Life's the cord of silver, binding Man in contact with his kind;

Death is but that band unwinding. Setting free the earth-bound mind. Life's the pitcher of the fountain Whence immortal rills descend;

'Tis the fragile wheel surmounting Cistern where pure waters blend. Life's the day and deed for action, Death the rest, the time of night; He who works with satisfaction, Works while yet the hour is light. Forward, then ! the day is waning. Westward sinks the setting sun; Onward! on! without complaining, Work, while yet it may be done.

HIS OPINIO V.

A western editor thinks all our troubles take their rise in follies, fast horses, and extravagance. Listen to him:

"Recklessness and gross heedlessness in business matters, have taken the place of carefulness. USURY LAWS IN VIRGINIA. - A few years since the sight of a newspaper prorosing the repeal of the usury laws was a sort of phenomenon Of late well-reasoned discussions of this question, in which the liberal side is taken, are becoming frequent In the Daily Virginian, printed at Lynchburg, appears a very well written examination of the policy of the usury laws, in the course of which it is pertinently said:

OWB, D. C. The estimate that is now accorded this preparation by the medical profession and by others com petent to judge of its merit, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attract-d the attention of a celebrated profession of the Edinburg College, Scotland, by whom it has been successfully used in a career of an aggravated character.

The proprieter has been forced to make more extensive arrangements to meet the rapidly increasing demand for BEECH UROP.

VINCENNES, INDIANA, Oct. 8. 1854. J. L. Ridwell-Dear Sir: Some three months ago, through the agency of Col with Miller, our representation in Congres . I had purchased of you for the use of my father in Scotland, one dozen Pottler of Beeth Drop or Cancer Preparation. I have a letter from my brother, stating that the physician desires you to forward another dozen bottles. He thinks under its use the di ease is arrested. I may add that my father has tried every physician of distinotion in Scotland and Englan i, including Prof-s sors of Edinburg and Coilleg s without relie'. The lisea e was of three yes s standing, began in the right cheek, which is partially consumed. He was a sufferer with constant pain, which has entirely

July 13th, 1854 Dear Sir-With great pleasure I inform that your preparation of Beech Prop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency for the last twelve years I have been afflicted with scrotula of a Cancerous form. So extensive was the ulcers and so horrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and the adjoining counties—in fact I had obtained the best medical aid in our State, without any abate ment of the disease. Through a f iend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Beech Drap, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me. My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with that purpose I beg all afflicted with Scrotula in any form Enclosed you will find an order from some friends for the preparation. Very truly,
